In Dedication

We, the class of 1964, wish to dedicate this Oracle to Mrs.
Beverly Kline.

OF ONE WHO LIVED VALIANTLY

She who lived valiantly has passed,
Why should we grieve,
Why should it break our hearts
Like this if we believe?
Surely she lives more valiantly
Than ever before,
Freed, as she is, to move without
The weights she bore;
Freed for the sweet adventurings
Of heavenly days,

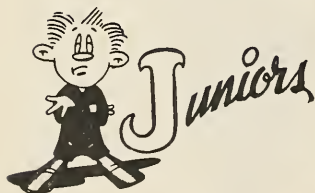

Lightened, to go exploring down
The glory-ways.
What must those first hours be to
Her who loved life so?
How swift, how very swift and
Glad her feet must go!
She who lived valiantly has
Passed, who should we grieve?
Why should it break our hearts
Like this if we believe?

Grace Noll Crowell

Juniors Presented "The Mouse That Roared".

"Congratulations, Norman, you've earned your twinkie badge."

Seniors Presented "The Cannibal Queen"

"But Lucious, where's your hoola hoop?"

"OK Lucious, I'll brush my teeth after every meal!"

SENIOR PLAY CAST -- STANDING: Donald Beck, Janet Drage, Vernon Gallmeyer, Marsha Hisner, John Beck, Lanny Simerman, Dorothy Piekarski, Gwen Andes. SEATED: Donna Drayer, Jackie Meyer, Mona McIntire, Dianna Patten, Kenneth Deam.

Many School Activities

COURT -- The King and Queen candidates for the "Some Enchanted Evening" Dance were:
GIRLS - bottom to top: Queen Gwen Andes, Beverly Schindler, Mona McIntire, Carol Meyer.
BOYS - top to bottom: King John Beck, Tony Kaufman, Lanny Simerman, Steve King.

The King and Queen and the court led off a dance.

Dancing was enjoyed by everyone at the Sweetheart Dance.

Provide Future Memories

The senior girls decorated the cafeteria for the Sweetheart Dance.

Give him a chance fellows.

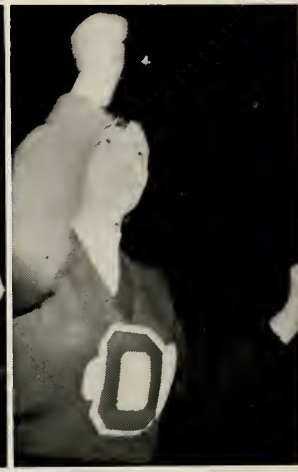

Our own "Beatles" provided entertainment for the record hops and the Sweetheart Dance.

Our record hops provided lots of entertainment.

Ballgames Prove To Be Exciting

The Basketball games provided lots of excitement for everyone. Just Look!

The Bears go up for another rebound.

"Is your donkey tired, Dave?"

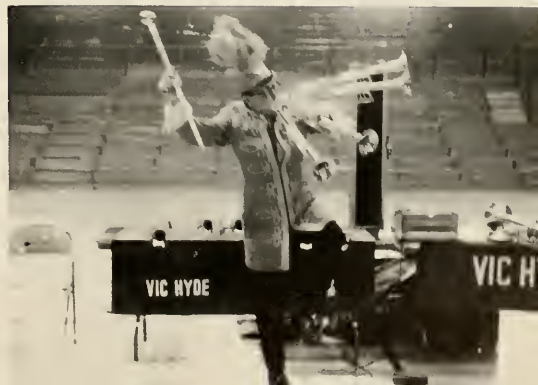

School Days

Monday mornings are usually busy as students buy lunch tickets.

No, Connie, you can't take the caps off.

Everyone enjoyed the assembly program that was presented by Vic Hyde.

Organizational Activities

The Robed Choir sang for the students in the cafeteria at Christmas time.

The seniors finally received their long awaited pictures. Was it worth all the $ $?

At Christmas the Senior Sunshine members wrapped cookies to take to the shut-ins.

The FHA girls cleaned the trophy case as one of their projects during FHA week.

Around The School

I wonder where she parked her broomstick???

Listen you guys, it's set to go off at 3:00.

"What do you mean bread and water? Just who do you think you are?"

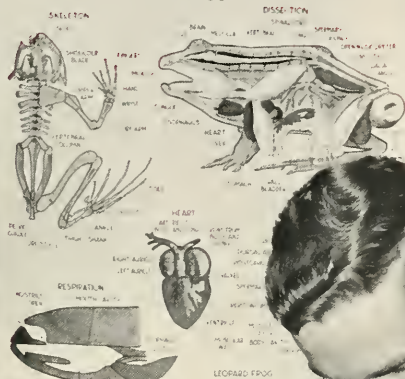

We see that Tony makes full use of his study periods.

Time, patience, work, the desire and the ability to learn are essential if a student is to reach his goal. Our variety of academic courses are designed to contribute in every way possible for each student to reach this goal.

The Seniors seem quite interested in their Business Arithmetic Class.

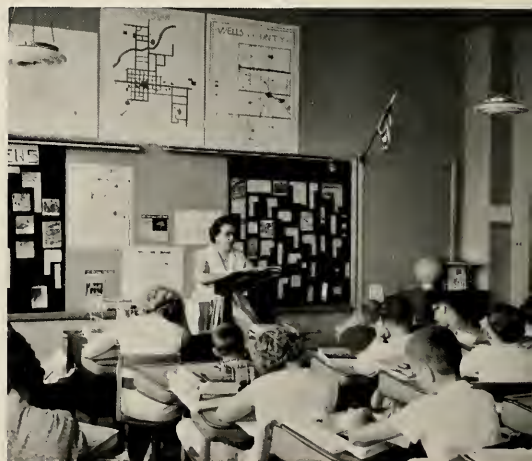

English + Literature = Many Opportunities

The students in English Literature are acting out one of Shakespeare's plays.

Barbara Miller displays the poster she made in Latin Class.

Awards in the English Department were given to Scott Trenary for Freshman English, Ann Hunter for Sophomore English, Kathleen Thiele for Junior English, and Gwen Andes for Senior English.

Mrs. Martin's seventh grade English class seems to be studying very hard.

ENGLISH

English is one of the basic requirements all through school. The type of course may vary from fundamental English to more complex speech and journalism, but whatever the course, it is very important to learn and be able to properly use the English Language.

Students in English composition do research for end-of-semester term paper.

Vera Keller won the school speech contest.

The awards in Latin were given to Mary Lou Thiele for Latin I and to Shari Pagels for Latin II.

Science Arouses Our Interests

Science, one of the most important high school subjects, begins with the fundamentals in General Science, then Biology, and finally into the more complex Chemistry and Physics. Our lab, the finest in the county and among the best in the entire state, promotes student interest in science and will also help later in college lab work.

Awards in the Science Department were presented to Mary Lou Thiele for Biology and to Allen Hunter for Chemistry.

Dale Gallmeyer is collecting leaves for his Biology collection.

In Biology the students learn the anatomy of the human body.

National Honor Society

The Ossian High School chapter of the National Honor Society was chartered in 1961-62, and has become an inspirational goal for our students. Eleven new members were inducted into the chapter this year, three Seniors and eight Juniors. These students were selected on the basis of character, leadership, service, and scholarship. These four qualities are the virtues most fundamental in life and most useful in society.

STANDING: President, John Beck; Vice-President, Danny Cotton. SEATED: Projects Chairman, Jean Werling; Secretary-Treasurer, Janice Henry.

Student Council

This was the second year for the Student Council. Miss Nola Amsler was chosen by the Council to be their adviser. The Student Council worked with the Faculty to choose the annual Christmas project of the school. It was decided to spend part of the money collected for a spotlight and part of it to support an orphan Chern Ming Cheng, in Hong Kong. They conducted several surveys of student opinions in regard to student affairs. The Student Council was also asked to help set up standards for the scholastic awards to be given by the P. T. A. and to help determine what kinds of awards would be given.
